

Peter KIRKALDY
Director, APAC CDIO Strategic Initiatives

Peter is an experienced Technology Manager, 30+ years, with a background covering multiple industries including European Space Agency, Financial Services, Petro-Chemical & Chemical Distribution services, he has various accreditations and certifications in project management and associated methodologies including Prince2, Scrum Master & Product owner as well as a being a certified Agile Coach.

Peter is currently working on the APAC Strategic Initiatives team in Singapore, he is currently working on efficiency and simplification project as well as Data analytics work including AI and Automation solutions.

Originally from St Andrews Peter played Football & Golf for many years, he has ventured into Go Kart and European Sports Car Racing, his main activities now are Golf & Clay Pigeon Shooting which he has represented the Singapore Gun Club in multiple international competitions. He has also recently set up the UBS Wine Appreciation Club to help people improve their internal network by meeting in a more informal manner while also increasing their knowledge of wine.